Dear Parent/Carer

Inset Day – Thursday 28th April 2011

I am writing to inform you that on Thursday 28th April there will be an in-service training day (Inset) to support the work that the academy is doing to ensure we come out of our no notice category.

Students will not be required to attend that day.

We are expecting a section 5 (HMI) visit during the summer term and this Inset day will be dedicated to staff training around the areas of safeguarding, SEN provision and teaching and learning.

I have chosen the 28th April due to the fact that the academy will also be closed to students on 29th April because of the Royal Wedding. Whilst I recognise the disruption that this may cause during what will be a short school week anyway because of the bank holiday Monday, I am sure you will support this decision in helping the academy move forward and avoid any disruption during the examination period in the summer term.

You will find enclosed your son/daughter's report which shows that the vast majority of our students, across all year groups are making good progress this year.

If you have any concerns or queries please email the relevant curriculum area using the group emails which you will find on the back of the newsletter which is also enclosed.

Enjoy a peaceful Easter break and thank you for your continued support.

Yours sincerely

Ben Dunne
