WORLD BEE DAY INFOGRAPHIC

This World Bee Day, we're calling all creative minds to design an eye-catching infographic that celebrates the incredible role of bees in our world!

Your mission? Educate, inspire, and impress. To win, your infographic must include key facts about bees (their role in pollination, threats they face, and why they matter), eye-popping visuals, and practical tips on how people can help protect bees.

Bonus points for originality, clear layout, and strong messaging. Whether you're a design whiz or a nature enthusiast, this is your chance to make a real impact.

Let your creativity take flight and help us spread the buzz—because bees matter, and your voice does too!
